

MARCH 17 ELECTION

The Town of Lauderdale-By-The-Sea will hold an election on Tuesday,

March 17 — the same day as the Presidential Primary — to fill the position of Mayor. Mayor Chris Vincent is seeking re-election to his second mayoral term. Former Planning & Zoning Board member John Graziano is also running for Mayor. No candidates filed to run against Commissioner Edmund Malkoon or Commissioner and Buz Oldaker, who were automatically re-elected.

Town no longer recycles glass

Glass no longer goes in your recycling cart. It goes in the trash!

The Town Commission recently decided to remove glass from the list of acceptable items to recycle. In South Florida, glass no longer has any monetary value and actually costs the Town more to recycle than throw it away.

Because glass is heavy, it's costly to transport to areas with viable glass markets. Since those locations already have plenty of glass, they don't need it from Broward County.

There is only an environmental benefit to recycling glass when it has a local use. No such uses currently exist here. We hope that changes, but for now, please Trash The Glass!

In the coming year, the Town will reach out to residents with more info about Recycling Right so we can reduce the amount of contamination in our curbside recycling.

Workshop meeting on Holiday Inn property

The Town Commission will hold a workshop on Monday, Jan. 27 in Jarvis Hall at 6PM to listen to representatives from Concord Wilshire on their revised plans to re-develop the old Holiday Inn property at the south end of Town.

The vacant and run-down hotel (see photo) is located between El Mar Drive and State Road A1A just north of Palm Avenue.

The Commission will listen to public comments after the Concord Wilshire presentation.

Town residents were unhappy with Concord Wilshire's first proposal, which called for dead-ending El Mar Drive, the Town's signature oceanfront street.

Sea Shorts Play Festival opens Feb. 14 in Jarvis Hall

Theater-lovers, mark your calendars!

You don't want to miss the Community Center's upcoming Sea Shorts Play Festival featuring nine new 10-minute plays.

Six shows will be performed over two week-ends in Jarvis Hall, 4505 N. Ocean Drive (adjacent to Town Hall). All the shows are free.

Showtimes are 7PM on Friday, Feb. 14 and 21; 7PM on Saturday, Feb. 15 and 22, and 4PM on Sunday, Feb. 16 and 23.

No reservations are needed but seating is limited. Doors open 30 minutes prior to each performance. Parking at Town Hall/Jarvis Hall is free during the show.

The weekend festival features nine plays written by Florida playwrights: Checked Baggage, Date Night, Therapy Dog, Outbid, Family Court, Stuck In Hell, Prose, Poetry and Pirates, Forever Young and Batman

"The Play's The Thing"

SEASIDE PLAYERS: Cast members Angela Mary Piraino and Fred Rallo share a scene in This, Too, Shall Pass, a play performed in October. The semi-annual festival is produced by the Town's Community Center. The fall production attracted more than 500 people. All the women attending the Feb. 14 show will receive a free rose.

and Robin.

The scripts were selected from among 47 submissions.

The 10-minute play format, which dates back to 1977 in the U.S., has become increasingly popular with audiences.

The Sea Shorts plays are directed by Lauderdale-By-The-Sea resident Brenda Aulbach.

"We have a super mix of comedies we think people will really enjoy," Aulbach said. "The cast is working hard and we expect another fun show."

The play festival is held in the spring and fall. The same plays are performed at each of the six shows, although different plays are selected for the spring and fall productions.

The scripts touch on adult subject matter and aren't suitable for children under 18.

For more information about the festival, please call 954-640-4209.

Deck The Halls

MERRY CHRISTMAS: Santa Claus (former Town Commissioner Jim Silverstone) was kind enough to drop by the Hampton Beach Club's condo in mid-December for its annual Christmas party. Sitting with Santa is event co-chair Marion Dobkin. Behind Santa are co-chairs Sal Massara (blue shirt) and Gregory Bohan. Left of Sal are three FAU students who volunteered as servers. Also in attendance were Mayor Chris Vincent and his wife, Chrissy; Commissioner Edmund Malkoon and Commissioner Buz Oldaker. Several VFD firefighters and BSO deputies also dropped by to say hello to Santa Claus.

BEE CAREFUL

Commissioner Edmund Malkoon carries a box of feral bees to the Town's new micro bee apiary in January. The new urban apiary is located adjacent to Town Hall.

GLASS (continued from Page 1)

Here's a quick overview: Place only the following items — loose and never bagged — in the blue recycling cart(s):

- Empty metal, steel or aluminum cans.
- Plastic bottles with the cap removed (no other plastic items allowed).
- Flattened cardboard (no packing material).
- Postcard sized or larger miscellaneous paper (nothing with food residue).

Never recycle the following items:

- Glass.
- Pizza boxes.
- Styrofoam.
- Plastic cups/trays.
- Shredded paper.
- Hangers.
- Clothes.

Again, all items should be loose and never bagged. Plastic bags are considered contamination as well.

When in doubt, throw it out. There is a helpful video about recycling on the Town's website at www.lbts-fl.gov.

You will find it under Service/Solid Waste/Recycling Overview. Scroll to the bottom of the page and click on the link under Florida Recycles.

Please watch it and adjust your recycling routine to comply with the new rules! By Recycling Right, you will be doing your part to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and preserve our limited natural resources.

CORRECTION

In the previous issue of Town Topics, the last name of longtime Town resident June Lassel (who recently passed away) was accidentally misspelled. We apologize for the error.
